HON. CLIFFORD SIFTON

ADDRESSES THE CANADA CLUB

Freely Discusses the Question of Imperial Preferential Trade and Imperial Defence.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch).

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Hon. Clifford Sifton delivered an important speech this evening before the Canada club. He dealt with the fiscal discussion now going on in England and spoke freely upon the question of imperial preferential trade, imperial defence and the best method for Canada to pursue in regard to all these important matters.

No portion of his speech was so heartily endorsed as when he declared that any preference which was not mutually advantageous to Britain and Canada would not have his support. He regretted to see Canada being represented in Britain as a squalling infant, crying out for something which it could not get, and threatening to leave the Empire if it did not get it.

Amid cheers from the audience Mr. Sifton declared that he objected to any one saying that Canada had to be bribed to remain loyal to the Empire.

He admitted that the preference on grain was an advantage to Canada, but could not say to what extent, until we know what they demand in return.

Mr. Sifton opposed the project of Canada contributing to imperial defence. He advocated the system that every school boy should be trained in drill and shooting, and when twenty-one to be given a rifle by the state to be produced at inspection each year.

He upheld Aylesworth and Jette in refusing to sign the Alaska award, and stated that in future commissions the Canadian case should be all Canadian.

FREIGHT TRAINS COLLIDE.

Two Canadian Pacific Railway freight trains collided between Nesbitt and Methuen yesterday at full speed. The collision was disastrous to the rolling stock.

Most everybody appreciates a pretty art calendar as a Christmas remembrance, and appreciates it all the more if he or she knows it bears the name of the king of all art printers, Raphael Tuck & Sons.

To these noted designers of Christmas delights in art goods we owe much, and it is a known fact that none of the finest artists in the world contribute annually to the designs in the "Tuck" line of Calendars and Cards.

The collection of effects this season seems beyond compare the finest yet.

THE NOMINATIONS

The nominations, which took place yesterday, proved conclusively the interest that is at present being taken in municipal matters. The present is a vital moment in Edmonton's municipal history. A strong, enterprising spirit must be adopted to carry the town on to what is ultimately in store for it. The majority candidates are, Wm. Short, who has served for two years on the council, and H. C. Taylor, are both strong men. Both are out to win, and the contest has every assurance of being exciting. Ten candidates are in the field for Councilors. Two, C. Gallagher and E. D. Grierson, of the three retiring councillors are again candidates. The others are, Chas. May, J. H. Picard, S. Paton, H. W. Heathcote, W. J. Webster, H. C. Malt, W. A. Grisebach and W. J. O. Boushcher. Three out of these ten candidates will be elected. There is certainly plenty of good material to choose from.

There will be no contest to fill the vacancies on the Roman Catholic separate school board, as only two candidates were nominated, and consequently were declared elected by acclamation. The retiring members of this board were A. Prince and J. H. Picard. A. E. Voyer and Joseph Billedeau are the new trustees.

The retiring members of the Protestant public school board are Alexander K. A. McLeod, and Rev. H. A. Gray. Alex. Taylor and Alex. A. McLeod are again in the field. Besides these, A. B. Cushing and F. A. Osborne were nominated and are in the field.

EDISON NOTES

The past week has been an eventful one for settlers in this district. On Thursday Mr. F. G. McIntosh, of the Canadian Northern Railway survey, arrived here with his outfit, consisting of 17 men. During the past summer they have been up the McLeod river, via Lake St. Anne, and have therefore seen a good bit of Northern Alberta; nevertheless, without a single exception, the members of the party agree that this is by far the finest bit of country they have yet seen. In fact several of them are determined either to homestead or buy Canadian Pacific Railway land here.

The line that they have surveyed from Edmonton via St. Albert, goes right through the settlement, and proceeds to the Athabasca Landing. The logging gang are behind and will be here in a few days. They are marking out camps, etc. so that this is the final survey in this direction.

Mr. Knox, of Minnesota, who settled here last summer, was unfortunately burned out about ten days ago, losing almost everything. A "bee" was organized last week, and a good number turning out, a very nice home was built for him inside of two days.

Mr. W. Weidrick has brought in a bunch of cattle including a fine young purebred Hereford bull. It is understood that there will be five saw mills running this winter, three at the springs and the others in the dry timber close to the settlement.

A suggestion has been made to form a Young Men's Club here, and in view of the fact that there are quite a number of young men here, we think it a very good idea and hope something will come of it.

It is understood that the contract for the carrying of the mail has been let, and begins in the first week of the new year.

Service is now held weekly at Mr. Edgson's house; last Sunday Mr. Johnson, the Presbyterian minister preached and there was a good attendance. On Sunday next the service will be Methodist.

It is understood that we are to have a school shortly, and it is none too soon, for there are now upwards of thirty children who could attend, and parents are naturally anxious about this.

The weather holds fine though we would all like to see a little more snow.

December 2nd, 1903.

—An exchange says, "A preparation has been discovered, which if applied to show windows, will prevent the troublesome accumulation of frost. It consists of a mixture of 55 drams of glycerine dissolved in a little over a quart of 92 per cent. alcohol containing, to improve the odor, some oil of amber. As soon as the mixture clarifies it is rubbed over the inner surface of the glass. This prevents sweating and frost—the bugbear of stockkeepers during winter months."

Will Interest The Cultivated.

If you are at all interested in pretty china and handsome glass, you cannot spend ten minutes more pleasantly and profitably than by taking a look through our china department. We have this season made a very special effort to have a collection of china and glass which should possess sufficient artistic merit to please the most fastidious connoisseurs.

We believe our effort has been entirely successful, and we are now showing for the Christmas trade in this department, a class of goods which is usually found only in the larger stores in the great cities. You do not need to be an expert to recognize merit in these goods. Every piece has been selected for its individual and intrinsic beauty.

There is an aristocracy, so to speak, in china and glassware. We would not trouble you to read this announcement unless we had goods to show you of a class quite distinct from those shown in every store along the street.

On our tables are shown some lovely Wedgwood ware (the real thing, not the cheap imitations which are often offered as such) in jugs of various sizes, and sugar bowls and cream jugs.

Cups and saucers and plates, in blue and gold, (real bullion gold, which will wear a lifetime), possess a delicate beauty which would excite anyone for breaking the teeth some-thing. In Copeland china (the real thing again) we have sets in white, with blue and gold stripes, very handsome, at $25 to $75. In Limoges china we have tea sets in rich and dainty designs at $10 to $18; also a large stock in this ware, which may be bought separately—cups and saucers, plates of various sizes, salad bowls, platters, etc.

In fancy Bavarian china, we have a very interesting collection of old pieces, in various colorings and very handsome decorations, such as salad bowls, cake plates, bon-bons, biscuit jars, chocolate jugs, etc. Prices on these will strike you as low.

In cut glass, we are showing some beautiful productions. In decanters, spirit jugs, vinegar and oil bottles, carafes, bon-bons, etc. Decanters, from the plain bowl, with cut neck and stopper, at $2, to a magnificent, massive, sparkling, full-cut bottle, at $16.

We have said nothing about ordinary decorative dinner and tea sets, toilet sets, etc. That is another story.

LOCAL.

—The land office is closed to-day, it being conception day.
—December 8th.—mild balmy weather—in Northern Alberta.

Weather: maximum temperature, 44; minimum temperature, 23.
—A special meeting of the city council is being held this afternoon.

—The Edmonton Old Timers hold their annual dinner at the Edmonton hotel 2p-morrow evening.

—The National Stock Company play at Fort Saskatchewan Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week.

—A gentleman's low shoe was found on the street yesterday and left at this office for the owner to claim.

—Robertson Bros., Vegreville, are making extensive arrangements for erecting a large general store at Vegreville.

—The Edmonton branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow, Wednesday, at 3:30 p.m. in the young men's club room in the old Methodist church on First street west. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

—MacDonald and Griesbach have removed their offices to over the Union Bank. Here they have large and commodious quarters. Leading off the main office room are two rooms overlooking the main street and three consulting rooms to the rear. A large fire proof vault is built in the side of the building.

—The Edmonton Tent and Mattress Company have been appointed agents for the surprise spring bed. They will also be granted the sole right to manufacture them in Alberta and have unloaded a carload for immediate sale, until they have a manufacturing plant in operation.

—A gang of men are stringing the wires for the long distance Bell telephone line in Edmonton today. Commencing at D. W. McDonald's drug store, the poles follow the alley behind the stores facing south on Main Street. They continue up to First Street, where they turn south and proceed to Strathcona. The company expects that Edmonton will be able to talk to Calgary within a few days now.

—The members of the Presbyterian church choir and a few friends gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Webster last night to bid farewell to Mr. Leing, who left for the East this morning. Mr. Leing has been in the choir during the past summer. He was presented with a handsomely bound hymnal as a slight token of appreciation of his services as a member of the choir.

—The National Stock Company played to a large house last night in their presentation of The Prisoner of Zenda. The company played under great disadvantages owing to the cramped stage. However, the play was greatly appreciated. Horace V. Noble, as Rudolph V. King of Ruritania, and as Rudolph Rensdell, was splendid. His acting called forth frequent applause. Scarcely less pleasing was the clever acting of Clara MacDonald Cornyn as the Princess Flavia. The character of the Princess was eminently fitted for Mrs. Cornyn and she did it full justice. W. G. Roach as Colonel Sapt was excellent. His military appearance added much to his rendering of the daredevil soldier. Joe Lyons as Fritz von Farlenheim and H. Robbins in the double parts of Franz Teppick and Captain Bentzon, were excellent. Jessie Lorraine as Antoinette de Mauban took her part well as also did Joe Lyons as Frau Teppick. W. J. Obley acted the part of Michael, Duke of Strelau. All the other parts were well taken and the play throughout was very good. The specialties were all good. The company conclude their stay in Edmonton this evening with the presentation of the play, The Sins of the Fathers.

PREFACE

[to "Edmonton Illustrated"]

To those who have known Edmonton from its early days, and who wish to keep a reference of its present stage of development for the days when we shall have a great city here, we present this volume as one of value.

For all those who wish to demonstrate to distant friends, to them, but little known conditions of living, general advancement in town and country, etc., etc., treated on herein we offer this volume as the most complete extant. Though Edmonton is rapidly becoming known the world over, yet the actual knowledge of these parts is generally but meagre and often very misleading, as the writer knows personally. This is also evidenced by the complete surprise shown by the average newcomer.

For these and other reasons we believe a work of this kind to be a real present need and our aim is to make it as exhaustive as it is within our power to do. Other works along this line have gone about half way: we have gone to the end, according to our light. Therefore we beg leave to present this little volume as the most practical and complete yet published, and beg you to give it your kindest consideration. The delay in publishing is largely directly due to the endeavor to include all of 1903's advancement, pictured and described.

Xmas, 1903.

Holiday Tips for Clothing Buyers.

To Buy a Suit or Overcoat Without seeing our stock would be like discussing the drama without a knowledge of Shakespeare, or trying to find out Edmonton's advantages from a Strathcona real estate agent.

To be sure, there is much good clothing to be found in other stores, but you don't know how good ready-to-wear clothing may be unless you have seen our garments. Our stock contains the best of every grade, and in each grade you get the very best suit or overcoat procurable.

This is not a theory, but an established fact.

Our grades of greatest pride are those at $10, $12 and $14. At these three prices you get enough style to satisfy any man.

It will pay you to do a little investigating. Then you will know our value is the greatest, that your money goes furthest, a declaration that is echoed from the $10 suit to the highest grade.

At $10 you have the choice of fifteen different materials, from the finest imported worsted to the finest domestic tweeds. All the best workmanship, lining and fit, equal to a custom made suit at more than double the price.

At $12.50 our big specials are fancy worsteds and Scotch and English tweeds of the newest and most popular designs, Fall and winter weight, best farmers' astin lining, workmanship of the best, and fit guaranteed. The suits cannot be duplicated elsewhere at less than $18.00.

At $14.00 we show the cream of perfection in suits. The best imported worsteds, in black and fancy colorings. Artistic in cut, unequalled in finish and beyond compare in workmanship. A special feature of this grade is the new padded shoulder that lends grace and elegance to the figure.

Men's Fur Lined Coats.

If you intend buying a fur-lined overcoat, don't delay, as we have only a few left. The shells are made of black imported beaver cloth, the linings are of prime muskrat, and the collar of No. 1 quality Persian lamb. All sizes are here. Our special price is $65.

For Boys and Youths

our efforts were untiring in securing the best manufactured, to sustain our reputation as HEADQUARTERS FOR BOYS' CLOTHING. We are showing exclusive novelties in Hare's Hosiery and Norfolk suits, Raglan and Blanket overcoats and reeliners.
